

Management Committee

The Management Board oversee the operation of Stathern Community Benefit Society and are accountable to the members – the Shareholders.

The current Management Committee of Stathern Community Benefit Society:

- Bridget Green

I have lived in the Vale of Belvoir since the summer of 1992 when I became the owner and landlady of The Anchor Inn in Plungar.

I retired from the Civil Service in 2018 where I was for the previous 17 years a Criminal Investigator. As a regular of The Red Lion, until it closed its doors, I enjoyed many great times there.

I feel strongly about the closure of pubs that were previously very successful and joined the community group for this reason. I was involved, back in the nineties, in preventing The Anchor Inn from getting planning for housing.

- Sally Fagan

I have lived in Stathern for 32 years and am passionate about our lovely village. During this time, I have been closely involved with the community. Amongst other things I introduced and led the Stathern Festival for most of the 11 years it was active, I am on the Stathern Neighbourhood Plan Committee and currently I chair the St. Guthlac's Church Events Committee. In addition, I look after the small telephone kiosk library. In the wider Vale I am secretary of the Harby Harlequins and a member of the Belvoir Vale Tennis Club. Professionally I am a linguist with experience in export sales and management training. Currently I run a social enterprise promoting the uptake of languages in schools.

- Amy Collins

I've lived in Stathern all 23 years of my life, and because of that have grown up with the Red Lion being a focal point of the village.

I'm part of this committee to try and bring the Red Lion back to how I used to remember it.

- Matt Hall

Matt has lived in the Vale since moving from London fifteen years ago. Matt is a radio and audio producer, and over the last 30 years has worked and made programmes for organisations including the BBC, The Guardian, and most recently News UK, the publishers of The Times and talkSPORT, where he was responsible for all the company's podcast output.

Matt has been a governor of Kinoulton Primary school (where both of his children were educated) and a trustee of Nottingham's Backlit Gallery, which combined his interest in social history and the role of arts organisations in their neighbourhoods.

STATHERN COMMUNITY BENEFIT SOCIETY LIMITED

Matt is passionate about pubs and their importance to their communities. He never travels anywhere without a copy of the Good Pub Guide, and is a keen watcher of the developments in the East Midlands beer and pub scene.

- Peter Jordan

I have lived in Stathern since December 1985. I moved from the North East to work at Clarendon College, now part of New College Nottingham. I have good organizational skills and always try to finish what I've started.

I represented Durham at Rugby Union but now I enjoy less energetic activities, such as gardening, walking our dog, playing skittles, and participating in village life.

- John Forinton

- Charla Forinton

Moved to Stathern 16 years ago with my husband John. Part of the Stathern Recreation Association committee for 7 years and involved in fundraising. 30 year career in luxury hospitality and employed full time by an international hotel company. BSc degree in hospitality management. Current custodians of 'the oldest house' in the village which we restored under grade II conservation guidelines.

- David Worth

Born in Nottingham, has lived in Stathern for 41 years. Over 40 years in IT, within a multinational IT outsourcing/service provider, responsible for management and delivery of service contracts to major clients in consumer industries. These included Carlsberg Tetley Ltd and Scottish and Newcastle Breweries. Latterly the Home Office and the MOD. Retired in 2012.

Having a varied sporting background, is now actively involved in archery and has represented Nottinghamshire in inter-county competition.

- Ken Bray

I am Ken Bray. Joan and I have been resident in Stathern since 2002 when we moved out of Nottingham. We have three children and three grandchildren. Since I retired from a lifetime as a Logistics Manager at Boots the Chemist in 2005, I have been involved in volunteering in the village and have served on both the Parish Council and the School Governors. Currently, I am Vice Chairman of the School Governing Board and Chairman of the Parish Council. The Parish Council has recently completed a three year project to produce a Neighbourhood Plan. For school I am Chairman of the Finance Committee, serve on the Health & Safety Committee, Pay Committee and am the GDPR governor. I find the two roles are a good balance. Fortunately, it still leaves me time for a little tennis, cricket and birdwatching.
